GOLDEN WEDDING—Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Ashley, who came to Torrance in 1913, celebrate 50 years of wedded life at their present home in Redondo Beach, Sunday.

They were the seventh family to move to Torrance, and at that time, 1913, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Ashley had been married 20 years. Last Sunday, Aug. 15, they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Friends of many years, and the children and descendants of the hale couple gathered at the home, 618 North with the Ritter Dental Co., where he had charge of the tool room, designing tools, jigs and fixtures. Here he became a writer. Many of his numerous inventions appeared in the American Machinist and Machinery. He wrote the book, "Practical Planer Kinks."

With their two daughters they moved to Los Angeles in the fall of 1907. He worked for the Union Oil Well Co., which later became the Union Tool Co. and still later was taken over by National Supply Co. of Torrance.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR MARICA WRIGHT
Marica Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wright of 1420 Beech ave., celebrated her eighth birthday Monday afternoon with a delightful party at her home. Pink rosebuds and a decorated cake enhanced the table set for 12 while distinctive lapel pins were favors. Those present were the honoree and Charlene St. Martin, Sally Sprout, Jane Fischer, Neella Moran, Helen McBride, Joyce Bever, Barbara Ludwig, Marian McDonald, Joan and Darlene DeRouin and Judy Wright.
